Dear Loren,

On behalf of Dan and myself, we would like to express our sincere appreciation for your untiring efforts to sell our package store during the last 23 months.

We know how hard you worked trying to screen and communicate with the 96 prospects who made contact with you from all over the country.

While owning a store that sold beer, wine and liquor helped support Dan and I and our families for 16 years, trying to sell it by ourselves proved to be impossible.

There is no doubt that you were the broker who exhibited the most professionalism during the process. You were available weekends and evenings when necessary, and you used conference phone calls to perfection to be sure everyone was on the same page.

Should I ever be asked by another business owner or buyer whom to recommend, you can be sure that you will be the one.

Thanks again for everything!

Sincerely,

David A. Lockwood
